Mel.org Guide

Remember in order to access Mel.org from home you need either a Michigan State I.D., a Michigan Driver’s License, or a Michigan Library card number

1. Go to www.mel.org:

2. Click on Databases—or you can click on the Teens Subject Gateway
3. Click on “Homework Help” in the Teen Gateway, or scroll down and click on the name of a database you’d like to use:

The databases we’ve covered today include: InfoTrac Student Edition, LearningExpress Library, Britannica School – High, and Gale Virtual Reference Library.

Today we created an account in LearningExpress Library, where you can get practice tests for the ACT.

Write in your Username and Password below, so you can use it again when you get home!
