1. Introduction WSU Library System
   a. Library Services
      - Research Guides: guides.lib.wayne.edu
      - For this class: guides.lib.wayne.edu/khs/kin1991
      - Academic Success Center: success.wayne.edu
      - Computing Help Desk: library.wayne.edu/services/computing/support
   b. Interlibrary Loan: wayne.illiad.oclc.org/illiad/illiad.dll
   c. Ask-a-Librarian (with 24/7 chat): library.wayne.edu/help
   d. APA Resources: guides.lib.wayne.edu/apastyle
   e. Quick Review on Plagiarism: library.wayne.edu/research

2. Scholarly Journals, Peer Review, Empirical Research, and PICO
   a. Scholarly Journals
   b. What is Peer Review?
   c. Empirical Research
   d. PICO – Population/Patient, Intervention, Comparison, Outcome

3. PubMed@Wayne
   a. What’s in it? Article citations from biomedical and life science journals and citations for online books, in 40 languages (mostly English), from 1946 to the present.
   b. What are MeSH Headings? How do I use them?

4. Google Scholar
   a. What’s in it? Citations for scholarly journal articles, conference papers, dissertations, and books.
   b. Where do I access it? Always access Google Scholar from the library homepage library.wayne.edu
   c. How can I search it better? Power Searching Tools
   d. How do I get full-text articles? Always use the Full Text@Wayne link if one is available. If not, look for a [PDF] or [HTML] link from a trusted source, or click the double arrow >>> and then select Check Library Holdings. Use the Interlibrary Loan link to request the article.